

New York

HOTELS

Chambers.

This discreet yet alluring boutique hotel is a David Rockwell design. Fresh and minimalist, it is perfectly located for a "midtown shopping raid". The downtown vibe doesn't hinder the uptown opulence. Go for the suite.

15 W 56th St. +1.212.974.5656

W Union Square.

Everything here is super-cool the location, the staff, the rooms, the lobby, the restaurant (Olives) and especially the bar (UnderBar). As the W likes to state: "Style is our Nature".

201 Park Ave +1.212.253.9119

THOR - The Hotel on Rivington.

A new star is born. It's a design supernova, composed of floor-to-ceiling windows and the purest design around. A new stop on the luxury hotel circuit. Fall for one of the striking suites.

107 Rivington St. +1.212.475.2600

SPECIAL EVENTS

Guggenheim Museum. A giant spiralling ramp towards the heavens. The best place to exhibit art, is inside a masterpiece. Frank Lloyd Wright's most famous achievement is the city's most stunning indoor stroll. 1071 Fifth Ave. +1.212.423.3500

www.nanotravel.com

October 07

RESTAURANTS

BLT Steak.

Designed by Michael Bagley, BLT Steak (Bistro Laurent Tourondel) integrates traditional elements of a cozy French Bistro with those of a stylish, urbane boite. Currently competing with Peter Luger for the Title of NYC's best steak.

106 E 57 St. +1.212.752.7470

Masa.

Masayoshi Takayama introduces sashimi and sushi as high art. For a full and pure intense experience, sit at one of the 11 seats at the bar, where you can watch the master at work as he produces dishes of extraordinary splendor.

Time Warner Center, 10 Columbus Circle.

Lever House.

Kubrick could have shot the bar scene of a Clockwork Orange in here. A futuristic setting for superb new-American cuisine. The vibe is hyper-cool, perfect for some ultra-networking with your droogs.

390 Park Ave. +1.212.888.2700

New York

BARS

Marquee.

A West Chelsea hotspot with a fine-looking crowd. The two-story space is cleverly designed, with a main dance floor and two additional, sexy rooms. Beware: The doorman might deem you unworthy of entrance.

289 Tenth Ave. +1.646.473.0202

Cain.

Elephant tusk door handles and zebra-skin counters. This South-African themed bar is a great place to bring your pack, embark on a cocktail safari and observe the mating rituals of the trendy locals.

544 W 27th St. +1.212.947.8000

49 Grove.

If Austin Powers were real - this is where he would hang out. Talk about Groovy...Currently one of th hottest spots in the city so there is some major "door policy" - talk to the concierge before you arrive.

49 Grove St +1.212.727.1100

SPECIAL EVENTS

Rose Center for Earth and Space. Have you ever wondered if we're alone in the universe? This place doesn't pretend to have the answer, but when we do find out, you can be sure these guys will be the first to know. Speaks to the child and the academic inside you. Central Park West 81st Street. +1.212.769.5200

www.nanotravel.com

October 07

CAFES

202.

A whimsically rusticated cafe inside Nicole Farhi's Chelsea Market Boutique. English Chef Annie Wayte fuses a seasonal spirit and a global pantry to create 'the city's best brunch', as voted by New York Magazine.

75 Ninth Ave. +1.646.638.1173

Nougatine @ Jean Georges.

Suave surroundings and a gathering point for Manhattanites who enjoy the finer things in life. Quality is always at the center of the experience.

1 Central Park W. +1.212.299.3900

The Modern.

The MoMa has undergone some big changes recently. And the cafe space is one of the most successful renovations. Combining artistic reverie with a sense of the professional, it is a perfect place for serious talk.

9 W. 53rd St. +1.212.333.1220