

Boston

HOTELS

Onyx Hotel.

This lovely hotel is conveniently situated for discovering the city by foot. The staff is warm and gracious, and there are some welcoming quirks such as the free wine reception every evening.

155 Portland St. +1.617.557.9955

The Four Seasons.

This luxury house offers any and every kind of indulgence you need. The spectacular 'face-lift massage', for one, will wipe five years off your face, let alone the jetlag. Enjoy.

200 Boylston St. +1.617.338.4400

Langham Hotel Boston.

Once the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, it still holds great treasures. A royal business center to hold your meetings and a breathtaking view of the Boston harbor are included. Be sure to indulge yourself with an invigorating in-room massage.

250 Franklin St. +1.617.451.1900

SPECIAL EVENTS

October 07

RESTAURANTS

Federalist.

A refined bacchanalian feast. A paradox you say? Here, the wine, the food, the setting, all is opulent, but blissfully refined. A vast range of epicurean delights.

15 Beacon St. +1.617.670.2515

The Metropolitan Club.

If you're just dying for a juicy steak, but wouldn't dream of anything but culinary excellence' here is where you want to be. Steak has never been in such refined company.

1210 Boylston Street. +1.617.731.0600

Locke-Ober.

An uber-traditional dinning-room for some cutting-edge cooking. The setting involves dark wood walls, heavy silver and shiny antique tableware, whereas in the kitchen, chef Lydia Shire comes up with some of Boston's gutsiest and most radical dishes.

3 and 4 Winter Place. +1.617.542.1340

Boston

BARS

Whiskey Park.

The deep, lush, extremely comfortable sofas make this place very difficult to leave, but very easy to practice the sport of cocktail sipping. Seal the deal and raise your glasses

138 Portland St. +1.617.523.8383

180 Lounge.

Looking to host a private party? Look no further. The staff here is dedicated to giving all you need for a memorable night. The interior uses light as a lead role creating a kaleidoscope of colors that accompanies you all around.

180 Lincoln St. +1.617.426.0180

Anthem.

This chic and charming spot is great for meeting clients and colleagues at. Another option is to show up solo and get to know the cocktail connoisseurs that populate the space. The comfy sofas are a warm treat for those tired feet.

138 Portland st. +1.617.523.8383

SPECIAL EVENTS

October 07

CAFES

Armani Cafe.

Right next door to an Armani store, this is a wonderful spot to glance at the fine-looking people. If the weather allows, grab a seat outside, the view is much better.

214 Newbury Street. +1.617.437.0909

Lobby @ the Langham.

Old European charm greets you here and you'd be hard pressed to find a more attentive service. The former Federal Reserve Bank is always a safe bet.

250 Franklin St. +1.617.451.1900

The Bristol Lounge @ Four Seasons.

Fancy some music? Thursdays and Saturdays you'll find live piano. But everyday of the week offers a breathtaking view of the public gardens.

200 Boylston St. +1.617.338.4400