

London

HOTELS

The Soho Hotel.

High-glam hotel in London's bustling and arty Soho district. Groovy aesthetics are very much part of the bundle here. Get a suite or penthouse and enjoy the private cinemas.

4 Richmond Mews. +44.20.7559.3000

Claridge's.

Situated within easy reach of Hyde Park and Oxford Street it is "London's' most glamorous and celebrated hotel". Each of the rooms is individually designed with a unique atmosphere, all utterly luxurious. It will be one memorable stay.

Brook Street, Mayfair. +44.20.7629.8860

The Sanderson.

This surreal dream world is as much an experience as a hotel. Welcome to wonderland. A great way to start the day is a work-out in the state-of-the art gym.

50 Berners St. +44.20.7300.1400

SPECIAL EVENTS

Albion Gallery. Part of the new Norman Foster complex, this sensational gallery showcases the works of some of the most minimalist and 'architectural' artists of recent years: James Turrell, Daniel Buren etc. A psychedelic trip for the senses. 8 Hester Road. +44.20.7801.2480

www.nanotravel.com

October 07

RESTAURANTS

Theo Randall.

Situated in the InterContinental hotel you will find this smart yet unpretentious restaurant. The cuisine is modern rustic Italian and absolutely sensational. Perfect for an intimate evening with friends or colleagues.

1 Hamilton Pl. +44.20.7318.8747

Nobu Berkley.

If you got a crowd to please, this is the place to take them. As-ever the sushi is sensational and the decor sensual. It's worth noting that they do not take reservations for parties of under five.

15 Berkeley Street. +44.20.7290.9222

Brunello.

Just opposite of Kensington Palace lays another luxurious fortress offering Italian specialties you never knew existed. A magnificent setting for progressive cuisine.

60 Hyde Park Gate. +44.20.7368.5900

London

BARS

43 South Molton.

Straight out of an Agatha Cristy novel, this shabby chic, eccentric spot is situated in a country house in the heart of London. An evening in a murder Mystery setting - without the murder of course.

43 South Molton Street. +44.20.7647.4343

Zeta.

Feng Shui has inspired every aspect of this one. Right down to the drinks packed with vitamins and minerals. What a classic cocktail won't cure, Zeta specialities will deal with.

35 Hertford Street. +44.20.7208.4067

The Social.

This sexy pub is the perfect spot to grab a pint and meet the locals. You're dangerously close to everyone here, and over here proximity sparks promiscuity.

5 Little Portland St. +44.20.7636.4992

SPECIAL EVENTS

The National Gallery. The most-talked about exhibition in decades. Bringing together the full range of Ruben's best works, this is joyous, luminous magic done with nothing more complicated than oils and canvas. And, oh yes, a good dash of genius. Trafalgar Square. +44.20.7747.2885

www.nanotravel.com

October 07

CAFES

Lobby @ the Ritz.

Tea at the Ritz is an institution in itself. Spend a glorious afternoon around a pot of pipping hot tea and a platter of the best pastries in town.

150 Piccadilly. +44.20.7493.8181

Refuel @ the SoHo.

Used to be a car park, now strictly a pedestrian affair. However, this venue is for the driven. Movers and shakers converge for meetings, drinks and nibbles.

4 Richmond Mews. +44.20.7559.3000

ICA Cafe.

The city's pioneering contemporary arts venue in Europe's most innovative cultural hub. So if arty is your thing, come and rub shoulders with London's art world.

The Mall. +44.20.7930.2402